

Kamil Dwornik, University of Warsaw

Wyodrębnianie się inteligencji ukraińskiej z duchowieństwa greckokatolickiego w Galicji na przykładzie życiorysu

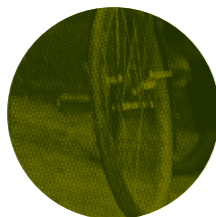

Josyfa Łozynskiego

[Emerging of the Ukrainian intelligentsia from the Greek Catholic clergy in Galicia on the example of the biography of Josyf Lozynsky]

Rafał Majerek, Jagiellonian University, Krakow

Słowackie elity przełomu XIX i XX wieku a zagadnienie emancypacji kobiet

[Slovak elites at the turn of the 20th century and the issue of women's emancipation]

13.30–14.10

Lunch break

14.10–15.30

Session 6. Local conflicts and competing elites

Damian Kubik, Jagiellonian University, Krakow

Relacje chorwackich i serbskich elit w Dubrowniku w okresie zarządu austriackiego w latach 1867–1899

[Relations between Croatian and Serbian elites in Dubrovnik during the period of Austrian administration between 1867 and 1899]

Tomasz Jacek Lis, Jagiellonian University, Krakow

Walka pokoleń – proces wymiany elit intelektualnych na austro-węgierskich rubieżach na przykładzie Dalmacji i Bośni i Hercegowiny od lat 70. XIX wieku do I wojny światowej

[The struggle of generations – the process of exchange of intellectual elites in the Austro-Hungarian borderlands on the example of Dalmatia and Bosnia and Herzegovina from the 1870s to the First World War]

Kajetan Stobiecki, Herder Institute, Marburg

Czeska twierdza na Zachodzie – pilzneńskie elity a problem „granicy językowej” w latach 1860–1914

[A Czech stronghold in the West – Plzeň elites and the problem of the “linguistic frontier” between 1860 and 1914]

15.30–15.50

Coffee break

15.50–17.10

Session 7. Beyond localness. Towards individuated localities

Michał Burdziński, Silesian Museum, Katowice

Bycie artystą (w) monarchii

[Being an artist (in/of) monarchy]

Maciej Czerwiński, Jagiellonian University, Krakow

Dalmacja Simy Matavulja

[A Dalmatia of Simo Matavulj]

Aleksandra Hudymač, Jagiellonian University, Krakow

Tożsamość niedokończona – doktor Bencúr w podróży

17.10–17.30

Closing Remarks

Photo: Márton A. Pattantyús, 1890s

Concept and Organization

The conference is organised by the Research Group on the Slavic Cultures in the Habsburg Monarchy (Institute of Western and Southern Slavic Studies, University of Warsaw) in cooperation with T. Manteuffel Institute of History (Polish Academy of Sciences) and German Historical Institute in Warsaw

Conference language

English

Conference Venue

German Historical Institute Warsaw

Pałac Karnickich

al. Ujazdowskie 39

00-540 Warszawa

+48 22 525 83 00

dhi@dhi.waw.pl

www.dhi.waw.pl

f /DHIWarschau

Local Communities and New Elites in Austria-Hungary

Conference

12–13 June 2023

German Historical Institute Warsaw

Ein Institut der

Max Weber
Stiftung

Deutsche
Geisteswissenschaftliche
Institute im Ausland

INSTYTUT SŁAWISTYKI
ZACHODNIEJ I POŁUDNIOWEJ
UNIWERSYTET WARSZAWSKI

Deutsches
Historisches Institut
Warschau

Niemiecki
Instytut Historyczny
w Warszawie

30

NIH w Warszawie
DHI Warschau

Monday, 12 June

9.00–9.10

Opening remarks

9.10–10.10

Keynote lectures

Miloš Řezník, German Historical Institute in Warsaw

Historicizing the concept of elites:

Is a trans-epochal comparison of elite formations possible?

Daniel Baric, Sorbonne University, Paris

Scaling Austro-Hungarian elites: from local to imperial, from biography to prosopography?

10.10–10.30

Coffee break

10.30–12.10

Session 1. Imperial elites

Michael Wedekind, Central Institute of Art History, Munich

Between Austria and Italy: the liberal elites of Italian speaking Tyrol, c. 1848 to 1915

István Nagy-L., Institute of Hungarian Research, Budapest

Birth of the Southern Slavic military elite of the Habsburg Monarchy

Gábor Egry, Institute of Political History, Budapest

Provisioning, welfare, social security, city management in late Austria-Hungary: stepping stones of a late post-imperial career

Edit Fabó, Institute of Hungarian Research, Budapest

The celebrated civic ethos and state frameworks

12.10–12.30

Coffee break

12.30–13.50

Session 2. Professional elites

Kate Densford, University of Nevada, Reno

Secondary agricultural education and the rise of local elites

Sécolène Plyer, University of Strasbourg

Maintaining a recent elite. Forms of modernization of textile industrialists in Northeast Bohemia in the early twentieth century

Tomáš Korbel, Charles University, Prague

Socio-professional networks of Czech architects and builders in the 19th century: Alois Turek, Adolf Bohaty, Gustav Wiedermann

13.50–14.30

Lunch break

14.30–15.50

Session 3. Leaders and community structures

Alicja Maślak-Maciejewska, Jagiellonian University, Krakow

Żyd uczący chrześcijan. Galicyjskie szkolnictwo i jego kadry w dobie równouprawnienia [A Jew teaching Christians. Galician educational system and its personnel in the age of equality]

Hanna Kozinska-Witt, Independent researcher, Rostock

Zarządzanie galicyjskim miasteczkiem przemysłowym: rada gminy miejskiej Podgórze jako arena działalności miejscowych elit

[Management of a Galician industrial town: the Podgórze municipal council as an arena for local elite activity]

Adam Świątek, Jagiellonian University, Krakow

Między lokalnością a słowiańskością. Próby organizacji struktur dziennikarskich i współpraca dziennikarzy słowiańskich w monarchii habsburskiej pod koniec XIX i na początku XX wieku [Between localism and Slavism. Attempts to organise journalistic structures and cooperation of Slavic journalists in the Habsburg monarchy in the late 19th and early 20th centuries]

16.30

Informal meeting at German Historical Institute

Tuesday, 13 June

9.00–10.00

Research Group on the Slavic Cultures in the Habsburg Monarchy: Background remarks

Community, elites, localness: framing the cross-cultural studies

Aleksander Łupienko, Polish Academy of Sciences

Community—theoretical frame

Maciej Falski, University of Warsaw

Emerging elites: Slovenes in Trieste

Anna Kobylińska, University of Warsaw

Making the community visible: New nest of Slovak locality

10.00–10.10

Coffee break

10.10–11.50

Session 4. Transformation of the local elites

Josip Jagodar, University of Slavonski Brod

The transition from frontier to civil society and the development of local political elites – a case study of the municipality of Kobaš (1872–1914)

Anikó Borbála Izsák, Institute of Political History, Budapest

Change and continuity in times of radical rupture: the elite of Baia Mare between 1910 and 1930

Anna Jonáková, Czech Academy of Sciences, Prague / Charles University, Prague

Czech middle-class families and the role of their elites in a small town in the second half of the 19th century

Iryna Orlevych, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Lviv

„Old” and „young”: conflicts among the Russophile intelligentsia at the beginning of the 20th century

11.50–12.10

Coffee break

12.10–13.30

Session 5. Communities vs. nationality

Natalia Kolb, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Lviv

„świat nie chce nas widzieć innymi, tylko właśnie takimi...”: rola duchowieństwa parafialnego greckokatolickiego w organizacji ukraińskiego ruchu narodowego w Galicji na przełomie XIX i XX wieku

[“the world does not want to see us as different, but just like this...”: the role of the Greek Catholic parish clergy in the organisation of the Ukrainian national movement in Galicia at the turn of the 20th century]